

National ACCHO CEO Summit

The Esplanade Hotel, Fremantle

NACCHO
National Aboriginal Community
Controlled Health Organisation

Tuesday 9 July

Facilitator: Ingrid Ngoorlak Cumming

- |                                      |   |
|--------------------------------------|---|
| 8.30am                        | Registration desk opensOn arrival, please register at the NACCHO event desk and collect your name badge  |
| 9.00am                        | Welcome to CountryDelivered by Uncle Nick Abraham  |
| 9.15am                        | AHCWA Board Chair WelcomeDelivered by Vicki O'Donnell, AHCWA   |
| 9.20am                        | Keynote AddressDelivered by Pat Turner, NACCHO   |
| 9.35am                        | First Nations Health Care in Places of DetentionPresented by Mel Turner, DoHAC; Dawn Casey, NACCHO and Abbie Clark, Equity EconomicsDeveloping a trial proposal for ACCHOs to expand or initiate health service delivery in places of detention including adult prisons and youth detention centres. This session will workshop the design principles to guide the development of the proposal and service delivery and options for the trial.  |
| Morning tea 10.30am – 11.00am |   |
| 11.00am                       | Developing a Needs Based Funding Model for the SectorPresented by Dawn Casey, NACCHO and Abbie Clark, Equity EconomicsThis session will provide an update on, and seek your input into, a new needs based funding model for the Sector to deliver Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander comprehensive community-controlled primary care in accordance with the needs of communities and to achieve significant, long-term improvements in health and wellbeing outcomes.                                |
| Lunch 1.00pm – 2.00pm         |   |
| 2.00pm                        | Raising Immunisation RatesPresented by Dr Jason Agostino and Dr Sean Cowley, NACCHOWith immunisation rates falling across all age groups for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, this session gives an update on the latest coverage rates for childhood immunisations, flu and COVID and will provide feedback from recent NACCHO surveys and focus groups on the barriers to immunisation. We will then brainstorm on ways to address barriers identified and come together to share ideas. |
| Afternoon tea 3.15pm – 3.45pm |   |
| 3.45pm                        | Supporting ACCHOs to Embed CQI Into Their Clinical and Organisational Governance PracticesPresented by Dr Lakhbinder Kang and Alvin Edney, Derbarl YerriganUsing Derbarl Yerrigan's experience and case study examples from ACCHOs, discuss strategies to break down barriers to ACCHOs embedding CQI in their service.   |

Meeting Close 5.00pm

Wednesday 10 July

Facilitator: Ingrid Ngoorlak Cumming

9.00am      Welcome and Recap of Day 1
Delivered by Ingrid Cumming

9.10am      Day 2 Keynote Address
Delivered by Donnella Mills, NACCHO

9.30am      A New First Nations Schedule for the National Health Reform Agreement
Presented by Dawn Casey and Jeanette Ward, NACCHO

In this session, come and join sector representatives involved in the current renegotiation of the National Health Reform Agreement (NHRA) for 2025-2030 including a new Schedule B - Better Health Outcomes for First Nations Peoples.

Morning tea 10.30am – 11.00am

11.00am      Antenatal to School Ready Planning
Presented by Monica Barolits-McCabe and Alex Grant, NACCHO
This session will provide an overview of consultation feedback on the 10-year Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Antenatal to School-Ready Maternal and Child Health Plan to date, and to gain a stronger understanding of barriers and strengths to improve access to holistic, culturally safe continuity of Maternal and Child health care.

Lunch 12.00pm – 1.00pm

1.00pm      Cancer Planning
Presented by Dawn Casey and Peter Bligh, NACCHO
The NACCHO Cancer Program will lay the foundation for scalable, national solutions to improve cancer related health outcomes for all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people. This session is to discuss the program and the roll out to the ACCHO sector.

Afternoon tea 2.30pm – 3.00pm

3.00pm      Blood Borne Viruses & Sexually Transmitted Infections, Including the Enhanced Syphilis Response
Presented by Dawn Casey and Carrie Fowlie, NACCHO
This session will provide an overview of blood borne viruses and sexually transmissible infections including syphilis; describe recent developments in NACCHO's BBV and STI programs, including stronger community control and funding for the sector. Sector advocacy achievements so far will be highlighted.

4.00pm      Cardiovascular, Renal and Chronic Diseases
Presented by Dr Jason Agostino, NACCHO
This session will provide an update on and provide time to discuss emerging priorities to address chronic kidney disease, cardiovascular disease, and diabetes outcomes for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.

Meeting Close 4.30pm